

Job Title:

Research Associate

Job Purpose:

Work under the direction of the Director of Research to support the initiation and facilitation of research endeavors conducted at the Institute.

Research and Funding:

Responsible for assisting the Director of Research in pursuing and securing grant funding through the submission of proposals, budget preparation, identifying and recruiting key investigators, partnering with higher education institutions, government agencies, etc. to conduct scientifically-based research in the area of educating students with learning challenges.

Conducting Research:

Under the supervision of the Director of Research, initiate and facilitate, research endeavors the Institute is either the lead research institution or a partner with other institutions. Present at local and international conferences and submit papers to appropriate peer-reviewed journals to disseminate research findings to a broad audience.

Collaboration:

Actively participate in collaboration with Qatar Foundation entities involved in sponsoring or supporting research, with institutions of higher education locally and internationally, and with governmental agencies, such as the Supreme Education Council.

Benefits

Flight: Return airfare provided (including spouse and up to 3 dependants)

Housing: Accommodations provided, utilities paid

Health insurance: Provided by employer (life and disability insurance also included)

Visa Sponsorship: Sponsored by the school

Vacation: Summer vacation; national holidays

Transport: Transportation allowance

Additional Benefits: Tuition allowance for dependants; shipping allowance; end of contract bonus; professional development opportunities

Educational Background and Experience

Ph.D. preferred, Master's degree required.

Authored or co-authored at least one publication related to working with students with learning challenges.

Evidence of successfully securing grant funding

Experience in conducting scientifically-based research.

Experience with research design and data analysis.

Strong English language skills, both written and oral.

Job Details

Start Date: August/September 2012

Location: Doha, Qatar

Apply at www.teachaway.com or contact Ms. Kate Manning, kate@teachaway.com +1-647-477-4038