SIM/CLC Workshop Series

Workshop #2 - May 10 & 11

Lexington Lansing Hotel

The University of Kansas Center for Research on Learning:
Strategy Intervention Model (SIM) and the Content Literacy Continuum (CLC)

Implementing Research-Based “Tiers of Support” in Secondary Schools

This workshop continues to focus on the Content Literacy Continuum framework which uses a team approach to successfully plan and implement school-wide change initiatives. Its flexible structure allows schools to develop personalized plans to address the unique needs found at each school. To find out more about The Content Literacy Continuum and the Strategic Instruction Model visit www.kuurl.org

Workshop II will focus on:

- Understanding the major components of the Strategic Instruction Model.
- Understanding the five levels of the CLC framework.
- Using the CLC framework to identify system strengths and needs.
- Using the CLC framework to create system action plans.
- Understanding the role of the building administrator to influencing classroom instructional practices.

Participants will have the opportunity to receive intensive professional development in the breakout sessions of their choice. They may choose to learn components of the Learning Strategies Curriculum OR the Content Enhancement Routines.

Breakout sessions for Content Enhancement Routines (recommended for general education teachers) include these materials:

- The Clarifying Routine Manual
- The Concept Mastery Routine Manual
- The Unit Organizer Manual

Breakout sessions for the Learning Strategies Curriculum (recommended for special education teachers) include these materials.
