- Topic: “IMPLEMENTING A RESPONSE TO INTERVENTION MODEL”

Speaker: Dr. John E. McCook, Director of Pupil Personnel, Knox County
Dr. John E. McCook is the Director of Pupil Personnel for the Knox County Schools in Knoxville, Tennessee. During the past 36 years, he has served in several roles for Knox County students. He has been an assistant professor at Knoxville College and an instructor at the University of Tennessee. His college faculty experiences include teaching educational statistics, physics, education curriculum courses and graduate courses in educational research and compliance issues. Dr. McCook is presently an adjunct assistant professor teaching graduate classes in Issues and Trends in Education and a graduate class in school law.

Providing leadership in many areas for the Knox County School District, Dr. McCook served as Director of Research and Public Information and chief negotiator for the Knoxville City Schools. Elected to the board of directors for the Association of Negotiators and Contract Administrators, he later elected its national president. In charge of transportation for the Knox County School District, Dr. McCook developed the computerized routing system. He became Director of Pupil Personnel in 1995 and has served to develop the school district's special education department into one of the leading departments in the South.

Serving as president of the Tennessee Association of Administrators in Special Education, Dr. McCook received the Richard Yoakley Award for the Outstanding Special Education Director in 1999. He continues to serve on the TAASE board of directors as well as the advisory board for the Special Educator and for the IEP Team Trainer. He is a frequent speaker at national conferences on special education, Section 504, and legal issues in school administration. He has written several publications regarding legal issues in Special Education and Section 504. LRP has recently published his manuals regarding the pre-referral process and the Implementation of a Response to Intervention Model, which he believes will merge general and special education into a seamless entity.
